The image of Jesus as the good shepherd is such a familiar image that it can sometimes become over-familiar and cease to engage us. Countless works of art have presented this image literally, picturing Jesus as a shepherd with a crook and surrounded by sheep or even with a lamb draped around the back of his neck. The image from this week's gospel often gets merged with the image from the parable of the lost sheep that appears in the gospels of Luke (15:1-7) and Matthew (18:10-14), where artists portray Jesus as the 'good shepherd' going out to retrieve the one lost sheep. In the gospel, Jesus says, 'I am the good shepherd', not 'I am like the good shepherd'. The writer's use of metaphor, rather than simile, provides a much more compelling image but can result in a more literal interpretation.

The emphasis of the image is on the adjective. Jesus is the good shepherd. Jesus is the good shepherd: the one who does not abandon his flock; the one who has concern for his sheep; the one who will lay down his own life for his sheep. The final verses of the passage make an interesting extension to the image of shepherd and sheep. Unlike the 'sacrificial lamb', the good shepherd chooses to lay down his life and also has the power to take it up again.

Prayer of Remembrance

*Heavenly Father, we remember with pride and gratitude the men and women who have given their lives in defence of this our country.
They fought and died that we might have
security and peace,
that we might walk in freedom and live in justice.*

*We remember with pride and gratitude
the men and women who live in suffering
and pain as a result of their generosity
in protecting our country.*

We remember with gratitude the men and women whose spirits were crushed and minds deranged by the horrors and suffering through which they passed.

*We remember with pride and gratitude the doctors, nurses, Red Cross workers and all volunteers who served our sick, wounded and exhausted
servicemen and women.*

We remember with gratitude the chaplains of our forces who brought spiritual comfort and consolation in times of sickness, injury and death.

Be merciful and gracious to them all, O Lord.

Amen

Children's Liturgy of the Word

We are still looking for volunteers who can lead our children at the Children's Liturgy of the Word held at 9am Sunday Mass. This session allows children of Primary School age to hear the Word of God at their own level of understanding and to see it related to their own lives. Please speak to Fr Don or contact the Parish Office if you can help.

Over 55's Craft Group

meet after the 9am Mass on Wednesdays (during School Term) in the Parish Hall. All are most welcome. Enjoy the social interaction and engage in craft work if you wish. Kindly call Jenny Cogin on 0407381549 for more information.

Come for a Cuppa

On Sundays after the 7.30am Mass and after the 9.00am Mass in the Parish Hall. All are welcome. Have a cuppa and meet other parishioners. Call Jenny on 0407381549 if you can help with catering and serving at the Morning Tea gathering.

Aid to the Church in Need Australia distributes over one million Bibles and religious books thanks to the help of our benefactors every year. Jesus commanded "Go out into the whole world and preach the Gospel to all creation." ACN takes this command seriously by spreading the faith through these Children's Bibles. Often in poor countries, the Children's Bible is the first book that children receive in their own language and frequently, it is the only picture book that they will ever hold. Visit www.aidtochurch.org/bibles and help ACN.

Carmelite Gift Shop in Nedlands The Carmelite Sisters of the Holy Trinity Carmel have been a vital part of the Perth Archdiocese for over 85 years. The Chapel and most of the monastery were built during the depression and post war years. In order to preserve this legacy, significant maintenance works are needed over the coming years. To assist in raising the necessary funds, an online shop has been established which can be accessed at www.holytrinitycarmel.com.au For enquiries regarding the online shop, please contact Sr Deborah on 0488 388 226.
