Each and every Mass puts us in a holy communion with the communion of saints. This is so because Christ, in His Mystical Body the Church, continues to join us into Himself so He can take us back to our Father in heaven.

Our prayers for the dead began with the first Christians who prayed for those early martyrs. They did so because they recognized the unbreakable bond that joins us all together in Christ, the living and the dead alike. Death cannot tear asunder the family of Christ; it cannot tear asunder the communion that we share in Christ with each other whether we are here on earth or have gone on into the next life.

Tuesday we celebrate the Feast of All Saints, remembering those heroes and heroines who lived such lives of faith, hope, and love here on earth that we honour them as saints who live now in heaven. But what of those who are not yet there? What of those who have yet to achieve heaven's goal?

As Catholics we speak of Purgatory, that state of being in which we are purging away those imperfections of ours that need to be overcome. It is a comforting doctrine. Purgatory is a statement that God's love always awaits us, God offers – we respond, and many of us, myself included, are working on perfecting the quality of our responses to God's offer of love. St. John tells us, God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. The unearned free gift of God's presence is here... we need only to fully open our hearts to receive all that God wants to give us. May God grant that each one of us live such a life.

May they guide me on life's journey and keep me near to you.*

The Human Wisdom of St Thomas Aquinas

All the other senses are based on the sense of touch.....Among all beings that have sense perception, man has the most delicate sense of touch..... And among men, those who possess the more refined sense of touch have the best intelligence.

Prayer Intentions:

Pope's General Intentions: A Church Open To Everyone

We pray for the Church; ever faithful to, and courageous in preaching the Gospel, may the Church be a community of solidarity, fraternity and welcome, always living in an atmosphere of synodality.

Thanksgiving: We pray in thanksgiving for all those who continue to support our parish, those who celebrate Birthdays and Anniversaries this month, those who are recovering from illness and those who care for them.

Speedy Recovery and Healing: In your charity please pray for the following: Rosa Celenza, Marise, Frank McKenna, Toni Vasta, Pat Naylor, Jan Dixon, Janice Hawkins, Kathleen Kania, Joe Migro, Brian Cant, Terry Cant, Maureen Henderson, Itala Imerito and Irene Olivier
